

Helen Rae, “Untitled (February 13, 2020)” (2020), colored pencil and graphite on paper, 24 x 18 inches, (photo by Tierra del Sol Gallery)

Helen Rae: The Evolution of Helen Rae

When: September 4–October 23

Where: Tierra del Sol Gallery (945 Chung King Rd, Chinatown, Los Angeles) (open by appointment)

Helen Rae was 76 years old in 2015 when she had her first show with Tierra del Sol Gallery, part of the Tierra del Sol Foundation which supports people with developmental disabilities through Workforce Development, College to Career, and Careers in the Arts. Her current show at the gallery, The Evolution of Helen Rae, features 15 vibrant drawings that continue her exploration of female portraiture. Based on images taken from fashion magazines, her colorful, patterned works lend an air of dream-like distortion to the serene glamor of haute couture.